Article 1 — Parties, scope and acceptance

1.1 These terms govern the service [description] (the "Service") provided by [Party A: name, registered office, tax code/VAT number] (the "Provider") to [Party B: name, registered office, tax code/VAT number] (the "Customer").

1.2 The Service is for businesses and professionals only: the Customer declares that it acts in the course of its business, not as a consumer under the Consumer Code (Legislative Decree 206/2005).

1.3 These are standard terms drawn up by the Provider: the clauses listed in the specific approval apply only if approved in writing (Articles 1341 and 1342 of the Civil Code).

Article 2 — Service and account

2.1 The Provider makes the Service available over the Internet as described in the published documentation; the Customer is responsible for its users' credentials.

2.2 The Customer does not use the Service for unlawful purposes, does not circumvent its security measures and does not resell it without written agreement.

Article 3 — Fees

3.1 The fee is EUR [amount] per period plus VAT, invoiced in advance and payable within 30 days.

3.2 Late payment bears interest under Legislative Decree 231/2002; after 30 days' delay and a written reminder the Provider may suspend the Service.

Article 4 — Customer data

4.1 Data uploaded remains the Customer's; the Provider uses it only to provide the Service.

4.2 The Service is not intended for processing personal data on the Customer's behalf; if the Customer intends to do so, the parties first conclude an agreement under Article 28 GDPR.

4.3 On termination the Customer may export its data for 30 days; the Provider then deletes it, unless the law requires otherwise.

Article 5 — Intellectual property

5.1 The Service and its software remain the Provider's or its licensors' (Law 633/1941); the Customer receives only a non-exclusive right of use for the term of the agreement.

Article 6 — Warranties and liability

6.1 The Service is provided with professional diligence; the Provider does not warrant that it is free of interruptions or errors beyond the stated service levels.

6.2 Except for wilful misconduct or gross negligence (Article 1229 of the Civil Code), the Provider's total liability is limited to the fees paid in the 12 months before the event and excludes loss of profit and data loss not caused by the Provider.

Article 7 — Term, renewal and withdrawal

7.1 The agreement lasts 12 months and renews automatically for equal periods unless either party gives written notice at least 30 days before expiry.

7.2 The Provider may amend these terms on 60 days' notice; a Customer who does not accept may withdraw without penalty before the change takes effect.

Article 8 — Governing law and jurisdiction

8.1 This agreement is governed by Italian law.

8.2 The courts of [competent court] have exclusive jurisdiction over any dispute concerning this agreement.

Article 9 — Final provisions

9.1 This agreement contains the whole agreement of the parties on its subject and supersedes any earlier understanding.

9.2 Any amendment must be in writing, failing which it is void.

9.3 If a clause is invalid, the others remain in force and the parties replace it with a valid clause whose effect is as close as possible.
