Article 1 — Infrastructure and providers

1.1

Provider	What it does	Personal data it may process
GitHub, Inc. (GitHub Pages)	Hosts this website and the public source code	Technical request data (IP address, browser, time, page) in its server logs, under GitHub's privacy statement
Proton AG (Proton Mail)	The contact mailbox	The emails you send

1.2 No analytics, advertising, font, map or video service is used. If a provider is added or changed, this page and the privacy notice are updated first.

Article 2 — Continuity

2.1 The website is a set of static files built from the project's sources; it does not depend on the owner's computer being switched on, and it can be moved to another host without changing its content. The source code and the evidence remain available in the public repository.
