What you may do with S.T.A.R. software

A plain-language summary of the Apache License 2.0. The licence text is what counts; this table helps you read it.

YOU MAY	YES / NO	CONDITION
Use it, for any purpose, including commercial work	● Yes	—
Copy it and give it to others	● Yes	Include the licence text and keep the copyright and NOTICE files
Change it	● Yes	Mark the files you changed
Distribute your changed version, open or closed	● Yes	Same conditions as above; your additions can have your own licence
Use the authors' patents that the code needs	● Yes	This right ends if you start a patent lawsuit over the software
Use the S.T.A.R. name or logo for your product	● No	Only to say truthfully where the software comes from
Expect a warranty or liability from the authors	● No	The software is provided “as is”, within the limits of the law (see the terms of use)
